

ABIGAIL DOW

abigaildow.com
abidow@bu.edu

Office B11
Boston University, Dept. of Economics
270 Bay State Road
Boston, MA, 02215

Last updated on: July 17, 2026

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Economics, Boston University (2021-2026)
M.Sc. Economics, University College London (Distinction) (2018-2019)
B.A. Economics & Management, The University of Oxford (2.1) (2013-2016)

EMPLOYMENT

FAIR Institute, Norwegian School of Economics (NHH)
Postdoctoral Fellow (2026 –)

Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health
Research Assistant to Prof. Margaret McConnell (2022-2024)

University College London
Research Assistant to Prof. Gabriella Conti (2019-2021)

U.K. Government Economic Service
Assistant Economist, Dept. for Business, Energy & Industrial Strategy
Labour Markets (2019-2020)
Strategic and International Energy Analysis (2018)
Consumer and Competition Policy (2017-2018)
Regulatory Policy Committee Secretariat (2016-2017)

WORKING PAPERS

- “The Price of Parenthood: Childcare Costs and Fertility”
- “Does More Prenatal Care Improve Health Outcomes? Evidence from Paid Sick Leave Mandates”
- “Intensive Nurse Home Visiting and Perinatal Mental Health in Low-Income Mothers”
Abigail Dow, Dea Oviedo, Michelle Woodford Martin, Mary Ann Bates, Katherine Baicker, Alecia McGregor, and Margaret McConnell

WORK IN PROGRESS

- “Disbelieved and Unrelieved? Gender in Doctor Patient Relationships”
- “Urban Parks and Health”
Abigail Dow, Jessie Lu, and Graeme Peterson
- “Variation in Physician Prices for Pregnancy and Delivery Care in the United States”
Abigail Dow, Rebecca Brooks Smith, David Wherly, Michael Chernew, and Anna Sinaiko

PRE-DOCTORAL RESEARCH AND POLICY BRIEFS

- Conti, Gabriella and Dow, Abigail. 2020. “The Impacts of COVID-19 on Health Visiting Services in England: FOI Evidence for the First Wave”
Featured in the Institute of Government’s “The Week in Public Services”. Referenced in BBC News coverage of the EEF report on the damage of lockdown to child speech and language skills.
- Conti, Gabriella and Dow, Abigail. 2020. “The Impacts of COVID-19 on Health Visiting in England ”
Featured in BBC Radio 4 File on 4, The Guardian, Medical Xpress, Nursery World, UCL News, The Institute of Health Visiting, Nursing Times, Children and Young People Now. Included as written evidence for the UK Public Services Committee inquiry Children in Crisis: The Role of Public Services in Overcoming Child Vulnerability.
- Conti, Gabriella and Dow, Abigail. 2020. “Rebuilding the Health Visiting Workforce: Costing Policy Proposals ”

AWARDS & FELLOWSHIPS

- 2024 ASHEcon Program Chair Award for Maternal, Sexual, and Reproductive Health
- 2024 Boston University GSO Conference Grant
- 2024 Berkeley/Sloan Summer School in Environmental and Energy Economics Grant

CONFERENCES & WORKSHOPS

2026: ASSA, EEA (upcoming)

2025: BU Applied Micro Dissertation Workshop, ASHEcon, SEHO, APPAM, Harvard Health Econ PhD Workshop

2024: ASHEcon, APPAM, Harvard Health Econ PhD Workshop

2023: BU Applied Micro Dissertation Workshop

2021: Wellcome Trust Longitudinal Studies Conference

TEACHING

- Boston University, Dept. of Economics
Introductory Microeconomic Analysis, Undergraduate level (2022-2026)
Head Teaching Assistant (2023, 2025-2026)

SERVICE

- BU Graduate Economic Association Officer (2023-2024)
- U.K. Civil Service Women in Economics Network Committee (2017-2020)
- Gender in the U.K. Government Economic Service Initiative (2017-2018)

SKILLS

R, Stata, Qualtrics, SQL (proficient); Python, Matlab (basic)

CITIZENSHIP

United Kingdom, Hungary